

THE GOLD STANDARD IN SAFETY

November 2016

On-Line Application

“Recently the safety department put into use a new online driver qualification application. This has proven to be very valuable in saving time in the onboarding process. Our agency really appreciates this new process. Keep up the good work”

Here We Go Folks....Court gives ELD rule the green light

The rule to mandate electronic logging devices is good to go, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit ruled Monday. The requirement was published late last year and set for an initial implementation phase to begin in December 2017.

Many of our drivers are getting ready early with

Why are over 10% of our drivers using this app?

We had to find out.....Here’s what we found:

They were tired of using paper logs. This app can be used on your smart phone or tablet (Android or Apple) and will do what paper logs do.

What’s the advantage? Neater logs, automatic uploads so that your logs are up-to-date, you can sign them on your phone and they are 100% legal. You will still enter in all the log information same as paper logs.

We are currently working with Keep Truckin. No more transflo or faxing logs. That means no more calls to get your logs to us! (Although you may miss chatting with Kelli!)

Another bonus is that they have also developed an ELD so that when required next year, it’ll be an easier transition. The app will be the same; there is just a box to plug into the ECM or OBDII port on your truck.
